

2023 New England 4-H Judges' School

New England 4-H Horse Show Rules & Judge Education Program

a program of the New England Land Grant Universities

March 25 - 26, 2023

Smith College (Saturday)
Northampton, MA

Mount Holyoke College (Sunday)
South Hadley, MA

Thank you for your interest in the New England 4-H Judges' Program!

The New England 4-H Horse Show Rules & Judge Education Program will be hosting the 2023 New England 4-H Horse Judges' School (NEJS) on March 25-26, 2023 located at Smith College & Mount Holyoke College. We have been hard at work to ensure this is our best event to date and we hope you will join us. Education is our focus and we believe that a consistent educational message will provide 4-H exhibitors throughout our region a professional, fair and top-quality evaluation of their equine skills. Once again, our school is approved for application for a Pony of America (POAC) national judge's card. We are pleased to continue offering a Steward/Show Management track.

COVID-19 Protocols

Smith College strongly encourages on-campus visitors be fully vaccinated for Covid-19.

Currently, masks are not required on either campus; however as we have come to know, circumstances can change so please follow email and our Facebook page for timely updates. If you are feeling ill, please refer to CDC guidelines. Please contact Deb Danforth, Program Chair with any questions or concerns.

Are you a New England 4-H Carded Judge or Steward?

Your card must be renewed annually to remain a current New England 4-H Horse Show Official.

Additionally, judges must attend an accepted judges' school every three years, including the live judging session, and complete the rulebook test attaining a minimum score of 85%.

Judges who last attended an accepted school in 2019 or before, must attend in 2023 to remain eligible for the New England list. If this is the only card you hold, please note there will not be another New England School until 2025. Judges currently on our list may renew without attending school in 2023, providing they send proof of attendance at an accepted 4-H judges' school in 2021 or 2022.

The New England 4-H Horse Show Rules & Judge Education Program accepts attendance at multiple 4-H judge's schools. To find out if your attendance at another school would qualify for renewal, please contact Deb Danforth, Program Chair at 802-468-1223 Office / 802-353-6034 Cell or deborah.danforth@castleton.edu

In order to remain current, you must register to renew by 2/17/2023**

New England 4-H Horse Show
Rules & Judge Education Program
DESIGNATION OF OFFICIALS

The designation of being a New England 4-H Horse Show Judge or Steward is a privilege. Qualifications that the New England 4-H Horse Show Rules & Judge Education Program is searching for include equine expertise, personal character and an interest in the New England and all 4-H Youth Horse Programs. Professional conduct is expected at all times. Status as an approved New England 4-H Horse Show Judge or Steward may be revoked by the New England 4-H Horse Show Rules & Judge Education Program's Selection Committee at any time without a formal hearing. As a courtesy, the Program's Selection Committee may grant a 60-day notice if possible. No privilege of appeal shall be available. A rejected applicant may re-apply one year after date of rejection. An additional fee is required for this application.

The information on this application is accurate and true to the best of my knowledge. I fully understand any inaccuracies or discrepancies will be considered unfavorable in my application. Furthermore, I understand that the designated authorities of the New England 4-H Horse Show Rules & Judge Education Program have the right to accept or deny this application, as well as the right to withdraw my name from the New England 4-H Horse Judges' List at any time. I will not challenge the Program's acceptance or rejection of my application, or its decision to remove me if so moved. I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the New England 4-H Horse Show Rulebook & Guidelines, and the Code of Conduct in consideration for the addition of my name to the New England 4-H Horse Judges' List. I also understand that failure to do so may result in my removal from said list.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Please initial next to each statement in order to be in compliance with our code of conduct.

___ My primary responsibility is to provide a safe, educational 4-H Program environment and experience for children ages 5 – 18, abiding by all state and federal laws.

___ I will represent the 4-H Program in a professional manner in all dealings, respecting diversity of people, ideas, and organizations.

___ I will master the rules of this sport and do my best to enforce them fairly and equally.

___ I will prepare myself physically and mentally, and dress professionally to maintain the high standards of our industry.

___ I will fulfill all my contractual obligations when hired and contracted for a job. In the event I am unable to (emergency), I will notify event managers as soon as possible and help find my replacement.

___ I will work with show managers and officials in a cooperative manner.

___ I understand that being a New England 4-H Horse Show Rules & Judge Education Program Judge and/or Steward is a privilege, not a right, and I will uphold my status with dignity and respect. At any time if my conduct violates this, my status could be revoked by the board of this committee.

___ I will refrain from any alcohol use before and during my official duties.

___ I will report to the Committee anything that could be a bribe, or an attempt to bribe me in my judging capacities.

___ I agree to act professionally at all times, treat each person and animal with respect, and make decisions ethically with integrity and with the intent to grow the industry and educate both children and adults to the best of my ability. I also agree to use social media in a professional manner and I understand that my status as a judge could come into question should I violate the use of social media.

___ I recognize that 4-H is a positive youth development education organization, engaging youth and volunteers in their area of interest and fostering a sense of belonging in members and volunteers and I will frame any communications with youth and volunteers with this in mind.

___ I agree to continue my education and look for ways to learn and grow as a judge, with the priority being to stay current on all rules and regulations, along with industry standards.

___ I agree to place each class in accordance with the rules and class specifications of the New England 4-H Horse Show Rule Book & Guidelines.

___ I agree to be courteous and respectful, demonstrate good sportsmanship and deal with conflicts in a tactful manner.

___ I will be a positive role model for youth.

___ I agree to dress professionally in accordance with the event I am judging. I am a representative of 4-H and I will conduct myself in a responsible and respectful manner while at any event I am attending as an official.

___ I agree to stand for the welfare of all living animals and in the event I am witness to any abuse, neglect or other actions that would question the health or safety of an animal, I will report it to the show management and also follow up with any report or information the show officials may need in order to guarantee that animals will be checked on and cared for now and in the future.

CODE OF CONDUCT

I have been provided with the opportunity to review the above code of conduct and have been given the opportunity to ask questions, and any questions have been answered satisfactorily. By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to adhere to the code of conduct described in this document. I understand that failure to comply with this code of conduct may result in disciplinary action or termination as a Horse and Pony Judge for the New England 4-H Horse Show Rules & Judge Education Program.
